ITEM NO. 1

In order to retain, reward, motivate desired talent for high level of individual performance, to create a culture of ownership, alignment with shareholder's interests and to align employees' objectives towards critical goals/ milestone of the Company, it is proposed to introduce "Ultracab (India) Ltd Employees Stock Option Scheme 2016" ("ESOP Scheme 2016" or "the Scheme").

In terms of the provisions of Section 62(1)(b) of the Companies Act, 2013 it is proposed to increase the subscribed capital of the Company by allotment of further shares, by offering shares to the employees under a scheme of employees stock option, subject to a special resolution passed in this regard.

The Scheme is meant for employees who are in permanent employment of the Company, working in India or outside India including Directors, whether whole time or otherwise [other than Promoters of the Company, Independent Directors and Directors (who either himself or through his relative or through anybody corporate) holding directly or indirectly more than 10% of the outstanding equity shares of the Company] as may be decided by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

ESOP Scheme 2016 would be subject to SEBI (Share Based Employee Benefits) Regulations 2014 (SEBI Regulations) or any other rules, regulations prescribed by Securities and Exchange Board of India including any amendment or re-enactment thereof. In terms of SEBI Regulations, the administration of ESOP Scheme 2016 would vest with the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

The Board of Directors of the Company at its meeting held on 22nd February, 2016 designated Nomination and Remuneration Committee as the Compensation Committee for the purpose of administration and superintendence of ESOP Scheme 2016.

Accordingly, approval of the shareholders is therefore being sought for implementing ESOP Scheme 2016 for grant of stock options to Eligible Employees of the Company (hereinafter referred to as "Option Grantee"). The resolution is aimed at enabling the grant of stock options from time to time with the key features as laid down below.

1. Total number of stock options to be granted:

The total number of stock options to be granted to the Option Grantee in one or more tranches, shall be 4,50,000 (Four Lakh Fifty Thousand) options at an exercise price as decided by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

Each stock option when exercised would be converted into one equity share of Rs. 10/- (Rupees Ten only) each fully paid-up. In case of consolidation of shares where the face value of the shares is increased to above Rs. 10/- the maximum number of shares available for being issued under ESOP Scheme 2016 shall stand modified accordingly, so as to ensure that the aggregate cumulative face value (No. of shares X Face value per share) prior to such consolidation remains unchanged after the share consolidation.

Vested options that lapse due to non-exercise or unvested options that get cancelled due to resignation or termination of the employees or otherwise, would be available for re-grant at a future date for which no further approval by shareholders would be required.

2. Identification of classes of employee entitled to participate in the ESOP Scheme 2016:

Employees entitled to participate in the ESOP Scheme 2016 are permanent employees of the Company working in India or outside India including Directors, whether whole time or otherwise [other than Promoters of the Company, Independent Directors and Directors (who either himself or through his relative or through any body corporate) holding directly or indirectly more than 10% of the outstanding Equity Shares of the Company] as may be decided by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall determine the eligibility criteria which should be fulfilled in order to become eligible to participate in ESOP Scheme 2016.

3. Transferability of employee stock options:

The stock options granted to the Option Grantee will not be transferable to any person and shall not be pledged, hypothecated, mortgaged or otherwise alienated in any manner. However, in the event of the death of the Option Grantee while in employment, the right to exercise all the stock options granted to him until such date shall be transferred to his legal heirs or nominees.

4. Requirements of vesting and period of vesting:

The stock options granted shall vest so long as the Option Grantee continues to be in the employment of the Company. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee may, at its discretion lay down certain performance metrics on the achievement of which the granted stock options would vest, the detailed terms and conditions relating to such performance-based vesting and the proportion in which stock options granted would vest (subject to the minimum and maximum vesting period as specified below).

The stock options would vest not earlier than 1 year from the date of grant of stock options. The exact proportion in which and the exact period over which the stock options would vest would be determined by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

5. Maximum vesting period:

The maximum period of vesting shall not exceed 5 years from the date grant of option.

6. Exercise Price:

The stock options would be granted at an exercise price i.e. Closing Market Price (as on the Grant Date) or at any other price as decided by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, which price shall not be less than the face value.

7. Exercise Period and the process of Exercise:

The Exercise period would commence from the date of vesting and will expire on completion of such period not exceeding 3 years from the date of vesting of stock options or as may be determined by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

The stock options will be exercisable by the Option Grantee by a written application to the Company to exercise the stock options in such manner, and on execution of such documents, as may be prescribed by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee from time to time. The stock options will lapse if not exercised within the specified exercise period.

8. Lock-in after exercise of options:

There shall be lock in for a period of six months after the allotment of shares to the eligible employees.

9. Appraisal process for determining the eligibility of the employee for ESOS:

The ESOS are being offered based on the past performance and future potential and such other criteria determined by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee at its sole discretion.

10. Maximum number of stock options to be issued per employee and in aggregate:

The aggregate number of stock options to be granted to the Option Grantee in one or more tranches under ESOP Scheme 2016 shall not exceed 4,50,000 (Four Lakh Fifty Thousand).

The number of options that may be granted to any specific employee under the ESOP Scheme 2016 during any one year shall not exceed 2% of the issued capital of the Company at the time of grant of options.

11. Maximum quantum of benefits to be provided per employee:

The Maximum quantum of benefits underlying the options issued to an Eligible Employee will depend upon the market price of the shares as on the date of sale of shares arising out of exercise of options, exercise price of options, the dividends declared and bonus or right shares issued.

12. Scheme to be implemented directly or through a Trust and New issue of shares:

The Scheme would be implemented and administered directly by the Company. The Scheme involves new issue of shares by the Company.

13. Disclosure and Accounting Policies:

The Company shall comply with such applicable disclosure and accounting policies as prescribed by the SEBI Regulations and prescribed under the accounting standards and by the concerned statutory authorities from time to time.

14. Method of stock option valuation:

The Company will adopt the fair value method to value the options granted under the Scheme or such other valuation as may be decided by the Board / Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

15. Other Terms:

The Company may, at the discretion of Nomination and Remuneration Committee, provide loan / fund the employees in accordance with the provisions of SEBI Regulations, LODR, Act and other applicable laws, for enabling them to participate in ESOP Scheme 2016 up to limits as prescribed under Section 67 of the Companies Act, 2013. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall have the absolute authority to vary or modify the terms of ESOP Scheme 2016 in accordance with the regulations and regulations prescribed by SEBI or regulations that may be issued by any appropriate authority from time to time, unless such variation, modification or alteration is detrimental to the interests of the Option Grantee.

None of the Directors, Key Managerial Personnel or their relatives are in any way concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, in the above referred resolution except in their capacity as shareholders and to the extent of the options/shares that may be issued under the Scheme.

The Board recommends the Special Resolution for approval by the members.

Item No. 2:

It is proposed to grant option equal to or exceeding one per cent, to the identified employees, as determined by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, to ensure the continuity of such employees for the benefit of the Company and its business operations. Hence, in terms of the provisions of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Share Based Employee Benefits) Regulations, 2014, as amended from time to time ("SEBI Regulations") the Company seeks approval from the shareholders to grant options to identified employees, during any one year, equal to or exceeding one per cent of the issued capital (excluding outstanding warrants and conversions) of the Company at the time of Grant of option, in one or more tranches.

None of the Directors, Key Managerial Personnel or their relatives are in any way concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, in the above referred resolution except in their capacity as shareholders and to the extent of the options/shares that may be issued under the Scheme.

The Board recommends the Special Resolution for approval by the members.
